World Communications Day – 16th May 2021

Please pray for all communicators on World Communications Day and please give generously to the second collection this weekend.

The theme for the 2021 World Day of Social Communications, chosen by Pope Francis, echoes the words of the Apostle Philip, recognising that authentic communication leads to “encountering people as and where they are”.

Saint Rita of Cascia - 22nd May

Rita wanted to become a nun but was pressured at a young age into marrying a harsh and cruel man. During their eighteen-year marriage, she bore and raised two sons. After her husband was killed in a brawl and her sons had died, Rita joined the Augustinian nuns in Cascia with whom she lived for 40 years.

Among other areas, Rita is well known as a patron of desperate, seemingly impossible causes, abuse victims, difficult marriages and wounds.

A United Front

Today we hear again Jesus' final prayer before his betrayal and arrest. Knowing that he hasn't much time in this world left, Jesus prays for himself and for those he is to leave behind. The expectation is, that although he is to be taken from the world, His disciples will carry on his mission.

It's amazing isn't it, a small handful of disciples were charged with spreading Jesus' message in an age without television, mobile phones, the internet or Easy Jet yet you would be hard pushed to find anyone on today's planet who had not heard of Jesus. This is surely a tribute to the commitment and single mindedness of those early disciples. So now the baton of discipleship has been handed to us. Now it's our turn to further Jesus' mission. How does Jesus' prayer otherwise known as Jesus' 'Priestly Prayer' help us?

There is one line in Jesus prayer that strikes at who we are and what we stand for. "Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one." We are being asked to act as one. We are being asked to practice unity. So do we practice unity or are we a divided people? What attitude do we exhibit towards other believers in other denominations? How do we relate to each other within our own congregations?

We may not always agree with the methods of worship employed by others. We may not always agree with certain interpretations placed upon some scripture; but over all Jesus' prayer reminds us that we must never fail to help other Christians to spread the message of God's plan of salvation.
